

october 2019

Livingetc

the love of design

style it out
FRESH IDEAS,
COOL TECH, CLEVER KIT...
HOW TO WORK IT
IN THE KITCHEN

discover what's hot for A/W 2019

THE BEST OF THIS SEASON'S FABRICS & WALLPAPERS DIRECTIONAL TRENDS FROM ITALIAN MEGA BRANDS
AUTUMN'S CHICEST
CATWALK LOOK COMES HOME

US$9.99 CAN$10.99 AU$10.50 NZ$13

£4.80

10 >

TOTAL ECLIPSE

A disc painted on the wall, like a rising full moon, forms an ethereal backdrop to a porcelain collection, with shades chosen to complement the pieces.

Mondrian sofa in velvet, £7,924, Jean-Marie Massaud at Poliform. IPN side table, £1,248, François Bauchet at Ligne Roset. Pilotis console table, £7,900, Malgorzata Bany at The New Craftsmen. (On console) Amethyst Sola cup, £145, The Conran Shop. Mold vase, £265, Kateryna Sokolova at Ligne Roset. Rock candle holder set of two pieces (also on table), from £140, Tom Dixon. Platter, £197, Mud Australia. (On sofa) Mandore Janta sculpture, £3,600, Alice Walton at The New Craftsmen. (On shelves) Foliage in pots, from £27.75, Fake It Flowers. Porcelain, from £15, Mud Australia. Wall in Parma Grey disc in Lulworth Blue; both estate emulsion, £46.50 for 2.5L, Farrow & Ball. Bell Twist carpet Aquatint, £39.99sq m, Brintons.

